I rode the train from Rotterdam to Brussels, Belgium. Departure time 8:48 A.M. Arrival time at the (S.N.C.) Brussel - Wood 10:40 A.M. The train stopped at Antwerp, ^{Belgium} ~~Belgium~~. I got lost in Brussels and got on the wrong train to return to Rotterdam. I was put off in a station and locked into a waiting room for one hour and then put on a train back to Brussels. As one spoke English but on account of my Berlitz French book I finally got back to Rotterdam, just in time to change clothes for the dinner dance.

I missed my hair apt. at 5:15 P.M. I should have been back at 4:30 but arrived here at 7 P.M.

10 A.M. and arrived in Amsterdam about (11) eleven o'clock A.M.
Amsterdam was mobbed with people everywhere so after some rushing around we left for the airport. We left there at 8 P.M. We had to change planes in Copenhagen and arrived in Stockholm about midnight. We are at the Grand Hotel.

Sunday Oct. 20, 1968 Stockholm

We went on a bus tour of Stockholm. The weather is cloudy and windy and cold. Our tour took us to the Royal Palace.

My camera quit working so I have probably lost all of my pictures.

We had dinner at a beautiful restaurant in the Opera House. It was a tremendous smorgasboard. A very famous place here.

Monday, Oct. 21st, 1968

We toured the downtown shopping section of Stockholm today. The weather was nice. Tonight we had dinner in a beautiful, interesting restaurant named Granta. The food was typical Swedish and no one spoke English there. big hotel in Kalmar

Tomorrow morning we have a call for 6:30 A.M. as we will be leaving for Kalmar on the plane at ten minutes to ten A.M.

Sund. Oct. 22, 1968

Ref and Betta and their two sons Per Olof and Magnus met us at the airport. Betta put on a Swedish Smorgasbord for dinner ^{at 5} that night.
Refs son Soule and his wife Brett came over later and we all went out for dinner and dancing, at the big hotel in Kalmar.

Wed. Oct. 23, 1968

We went through an old castle in Kolmar. Then we went to see Alf's father and mother. His mother is Grandpa Carlson's sister. They also served a huge Swedish Smorgasbord.
~~on the way to their place we~~ ~~stopped at the O~~

Thurs. Oct. 24, 1968

We went through the glass factory at Orefors. We had lunch at Ake's cousin's house. Her husband is one of the artists at the glass plant. From there we went to Otto's home, who is a brother of Grandpa Carlsson. A delightful day. Another smorgasbord at Otto's.

Fri. Oct. 25, 1968

Elmer and I walked around the town of Kalmar. Britta was preparing a big dinner. Her Mother and Alf, Jack and Britt and Solve came over for dinner in the afternoon and spent the evening. Alf showed slides and movies of his trip to the U. S. last summer.

Our schedule was to leave Kalmar Fri. Morning for Copenhagen but Britta and Alf wanted us to stay until Saturday so they could go with us to Copenhagen.

Wagner went home with Britta's Mother.

Sat. Oct. 26, 1968

We had breakfast and then took her Alog over to Britt and Soules apt. We then drove to Malmo which is about 150 miles from Kalmar. Bef left her car there and we all rode the fast hydro boat over to Copenhagen. The boat ride on the Baltic Sea took about 45 minutes.

Our rooms at the Hotel Royal were beautiful and Copenhagen is a wonderful place. We went out Sat. night at the Valentinia night club. We had dinner and danced and watched the floor show.

Sun. Oct. 27, 1968

We had breakfast in the coffee shop and Brett and Alf left about 11:30 to go back to Kalmar. We were all tired from being up so late Sat. night.

In the evening Elmer and I went for a long walk.

Mon. Oct. 28, 1968 - Thurs. Oct. 30, 1968

We flew to Paris and loved it there even tho hardly anyone spoke English. We stayed at the Hotel De Castiglione which is in the heart of the downtown.

We went on a sightseeing tour of the City Tuesday and went for a long walk along the Seine River that night. We went through the Louvre on Wednesday and alot more walking all over. We left Thurs. and changed planes in London and then a perfect flight home and it is nice to be home.
